DEATH OF JULES GREVY,

THE FAMOUS EX-PRESIDENT OF FRANCE.

Lord Aberdeen Talks on Behring Sea and Other Questions—An Old Cowichan Settler Killed—The Empress of Japan's Mails.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—M. Grévy, ex-President of the French Republic, died to-day.

Lord Aberdeen Interviewed.

BOSTON, Sept. 9.—The Earl of Aberdeen, the Countess of Aberdeen and Lady Marjorie Gordon left Boston yesterday for the White Mountains. When asked the opinion of the English people on the Behring Sea settlement he replied that the modus vivendi agreed upon was considered very satisfactory Of the McKinley bill he said there was an opinion in some quarters that the bill was intended to corner Canada and force her into the United States. In England business was very good indeed, though he thought shipbuilding had been quite enough rushed forward. In regard to the Irish question, the Earl, who is a Liberal, said it was the opinion of the Liberals that Mr. Gladstone would have a majority at the next general election. Mr. Gladstone, said the Earl, is just as earnest for home rule as ever. The last bye elections showed that a majority of the Irish people were not with Parnell. The Liberal party would work with the home rule party the same as ever.

An Old Cowichan Settler Killed.

DUNCAN'S STATION, Sept. 9.—Word has just been received here that Mr. Hugh Drummond, an old pioneer farmer of Cowichan, has been killed. It is supposed he fell out of his wagon on his way home to Maple Bay from Duncan's Station last night.

It looks as though the rainy season had set in.

Grouse are not so plentiful as in former years.

A Fatal Capsize.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—The schooner Rose Sparks capsized off Point Reyes at 6 o'clock last night and one of her crew was drowned. The other four hung on to the keel until 8 o'clock this morning, when they were picked up by the schooner Helen M. Merriam, from Rogue River.

Died of Apoplexy.

PARIS, Sept. 9.—Major J. M. Bunby, editor of the New York Mail and Express, who was stricken with apoplexy here, is dead.

INSIDE TWENTY-ONE DAYS.

The Empress of Japan's Mails Landed in Queenstown Yesterday.

QUEENSTOWN, Sept 8.—The City of New York arrived here this afternoon at 2 o'clock, having crossed the Atlantic in 5 days, 22 hours and 50 minutes, beating the best previous eastward passages. Her daily runs were 440 miles, 436, 451, 460, 462 and 452. The whole time between Yokohama and Queenstown was less than 21 days.

NEW WESTMINSTER.

A Big Bear—The Coming Celebration—Wire Troubles.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 9.—W. H. Vieuan, "Dutch Bill," shot a hugh bear on the North Arm at the city limits last night. Bruin weighed 750 pounds, the biggest killed in the southern part of the province in years. The old man is very proud of his prowess. His feat has set all the young fellows daft after bear, and the woods are now full of riflemen.

A professional oarsman named Roberts, from Toronto, accompanied by his trainer, is staying in the city at present. He is anxious to get on a race with McLean and will probably succeed after McLean meets Ten Eyck, who is coming.

The meeting of chairmen of committees on the celebration last night decided to have the big boat race come off on American Day, 24th inst.

Another electrical accident took place this morning. The tramway wire became connected with the telephone wires, and burned out 25 coils at the telephone office. The telephone management is getting tired of this sort of thing.

DR. WELTI OF GLARUS.

The President of the Swiss Republic in Its Six Hundredth Year.

The chief official personage of Switzerland is Dr. Welti, of Glarus, President of the "Bundes-rath" or Federal Council of the Swiss Republic. It must be very interesting to Americans to know something of the methods of the executive of a government that has been a republic since 1291. The Swiss President's authority does not resemble that of a President of the United States or a President of the French Republic. The Swiss President is a comparatively unimportant office, yet the Swiss claim that theirs is a freer government than ours. The Swiss constitution vests the supreme executive power in the Bundes-rath collectively, which consists of seven members appointed for three years by the General Assembly. To the Federal councillors severally are allotted the several departments, namely, the Foreign Office, the Home Office, Department of Justice, the Army, the Finance and Custom, the Department of Agriculture, Manufactures and Trade and the Postoffice and Railroads Department. The President and Vice-President, elected for one year only, and not re-eligible for the second year, do not appoint or control these ministers or councillors, but carry out the decrees of the council as nominal heads of the confederation during their term of office. They have a voice in deliberating on its policy, but less real power than the prime minister of a kingdom with parliamentary government. The President receives a salary of $3000 a year. The Federal Parliament consists of a Senate and a House of Representatives. The Senate is composed of two members from each canton, and the Lower House has 147 members, who are directly elected on the basis of one representative for 20,000 of population. Many of the cantons have also their own legislature for domestic affairs.

In several cantons every new law or measure of government must be submitted to the direct vote of the people assembled for the occasion. There are twenty-two cantons in Switzerland, with a population of 3,000,000.

NANAIMO NEWS.

The Miners' Trouble—Squatters' Meeting—An Elopement.

NANAIMO, Sept. 8.—The two factions of the Miners' Union have so far failed to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion. The lodge meeting last evening proved to be a stormy one; it was not confined to the members of the union only and many storekeepers and others could be seen in the lodge rooms. Quite an interest has been taken in the affair, and it is being closely watched with much anxiety. Overtures were made by the committee selected from the meeting on Saturday, but were declined by the meeting. The dissatisfied miners were asked to pay the assessment as best they could, but this they were opposed to. A committee was officially appointed by the lodge last evening to confer with the other committee, but it is feared they will not come to an amicable settlement.

AN ERRING WOMAN.

It leaked out this morning that pretty Mrs. Ince had eloped, and the affair has caused quite a sensation. The woman is a daughter of H. Cooper, wharfinger for the New V.C. Co., and has been married about three years. She is quite a young woman, and the husband is a young man about 22 years old, also very good looking. The latter stated that she left a letter for him last Tuesday morning saying she was going to the river. She took with her all her husband's jewelry and about $160. Mr. Ince says: "If —— thinks he has got a good thing he is terribly mistaken, and he is welcome to her. I have tried my best to treat her well and have forgiven her all sorts of grievances, but if she comes back now she will not live with me."

FISHING ON A LARGE SCALE.

Messrs. Whiffin & Co., have leased a piece of property on Newcastle townsite to J. P. C. Buist, which the latter intends to use as a fishing station. Mr. Buist intends to employ a large number of men and boats and go into fishing on a large scale. The principal fish will be dog fish, from which the oil is to be extracted and placed on the market. Departure Bay affords a capital spot for the business, and it is presumed a thriving business will be done here.

A BIG UNDERTAKING.

Mr. H. Field, of Field Bros., real estate agents, is endeavoring to form a company with $50,000 capital to erect a large hotel in this city. There is not a city on the coast that is more in need of an hotel of this description than Nanaimo, and it should therefore prove a good paying concern. At present travelers are put to great inconvenience for want of better accommodation.

EMMA THURSBY.

NANAIMO, Sept. 9.—The Emma Thursby concert given in the Opera House last evening was a brilliant success. During the day the demand for reserved seats was great, but they had all been sold days before. The concert opened with a Gypsy chorus, composed of all the principal singers in the city. The effect on the audience was a most pleasant one, and they showed their appreciation by loud applause. Then followed songs by Mr. Charlton, Mrs. Wolfe and Mr. J. Decker, all of whom were well received. Miss Thursby then made her appearance, and her singing of the Swiss echo was rich indeed, for which she was loudly encored. She received several handsome bouquets from her admirers. The others who took part in the concert were Misses Bate and Glaholm, and Mr. Johnston. It finished with a quintette by Mesdames Davis, Heyland and Wolfe, and Misses Bate and Dobeson. Mrs. Wolfe must be congratulated on the success which attended her efforts in giving the public of Nanaimo this treat.

THE SQUATTERS' MEETING.

The squatters from all parts of the district held a meeting at Nanaimo river bridge last evening for the purpose of receiving the report of Mr. T. Patterson in respect to the visit to Ottawa in the interests of the squatters, and the purport of which has already been published. It was then decided to form a Liberal Association among themselves and endeavor to get a candidate to run at the next election on the Liberal ticket, after which the meeting adjourned.

LITTLE EVENTS.

The shipping in the harbor is becoming scarce, and many idle days appear to be in store for the miners this month.

The mayor and aldermen have decided to present Captain Rogers with a set of colors as soon as the "City of Nanaimo" arrives here.

Mr. H. Marymont has disposed of his extensive premises to Fletcher & Fisher, of Vancouver, who will use the building for a wholesale establishment.

The dance given in St. Paul's Institute last evening was fairly attended, and the dancers enjoyed themselves immensely.

DESPERATE FROM WANT.

SUICIDES AND CANNABALISM RIFE IN RUSSIA.

Work of the Trades Union Congress—Discussing the Royal Family—The Usual Grist of War Rumors—Britain Looking After the Sultan.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—The refusal of the trades congress committee to propose a resolution that would include the Prince of Wales is regarded here as an echo of the widespread nonconformist sentiment which has set a mark of condemnation on the social life of the prince. The discussion in the committee of arrangements is said to have been very pointed, and took in the whole range of the royal brood of Queen Victoria. One delegate boldly asserted that the family of the Queen, apart from herself, had no claim whatever on the country, and that it was an outrage that the people should be expected to contribute to their support. The long list of royal descendants was canvassed in vain for a name that the working-men could consistently honor by special mention at their banquet, but not one could be found worthy on his own account of any such testimonial. The baccarat trial was gone over, and altogether it was a discussion to make the ears of royalty tingle. The conclusion was reached that none should be honored but the Queen.

THE RIVAL CAESARS.

A Berlin dispatch says that the news that the Czar would avoid meeting the Kaiser on return of the former from Denmark to St. Petersburg, is quoted in confirmation of the views of those who anticipated war. A meeting between the two sovereigns had been arranged some time ago to take place after the Czar's visit to Copenhagen. The cancellation of the appointment by the Czar is regarded as proof that the latter does not consider it necessary any longer to retain the goodwill of the Germans. When it was merely rumored that the Czar had assumed an unfriendly attitude, not much confidence was placed in the statement, and the official announcement has caused great surprise.

ITALY'S PREPARATIONS.

The news that Italy is hastening to supply herself with a vast quantity of new rifles, does not tend to allay the war feeling, as in the embarrassed financial condition of that country no expenditure, even for military purposes, would be made except under a conviction of immediate necessity. The Italian fleet also has received instructions to be ready for service upon call, and many officers and men have been recalled from leave of absence. This action, however, like the notice to the German reserves, may, it is suggested, be precautionary.

TO VISIT STAMBOUL.

It is rumored that the British fleet now in the Mediterranean will shortly be ordered to Constantinople as a hint to the Sultan of the possible fate of his city should he become too aggressive toward England. It is also stated in a dispatch from Stamboul that the British fleet when it arrives will pass the Dardanelles into the Black Sea and give notice thereby to Russia that the Black Sea is not a Russian lake.

DRIVEN BY DESPERATION.

From Kieff comes the account of a horrible tragedy. A Jew named Kaplan, driven to desperation by an order to leave Russia, he having been deprived of a comfortable business by former decrees, first shot his wife and then one by one his five children, he afterwards killed himself. Kaplan left a note stating the motive for the crime, which was his desire to save his family from otherwise inevitable misery. From other parts of Russia comes news of tragedies attendant on the failure of the harvest and the consequent suffering and struggle for existance. While no cases of cannibalism have been reported, there have been several cases of mysterious disappearances that are attributed to suspected cannibalism, and in Bessarabia the police are carefully watching for evidence against persons under suspicion. Many suicides are stated to have occurred among the peasantry, who, owing to a strong religious feeling, have been as a rule slow to commit this act. There is nothing reassuring in Russian advices and the prospect for the winter is too terrible to contemplate.

A Lucky Indian Sealer.

Captain James Claplanhoo, master of the sealing schooner Lottie, of Neah Bay, deposited $3000 in the Merchants' bank yesterday, it being a portion of his share of this season's seal catch. Capt. Claplanhoo is a full-blood Indian and chief of the Makahs, a very frugal and industrious tribe of Indians. He was formerly a pupil of Judge James G. Swan of this city, and from 1852 to 1866 acquired a pretty fair education, which he has since made useful. Judge Swan was then a teacher in the Government school at Neah Bay and James Claplanhoo was one of his most studious pupils. While the average full-blood Indian has neither the faculty for making money nor the inclination to save it, some of them have become prosperous and comparatively wealthy, and have fully demonstrated their ability to compete with their shrewd white neighbors in various branches of business.—Port Townsend Leader.

BASEBALL.

The V.A.C.'s and James Bays will cross bats on the Caledonian grounds on Saturday afternoon. The best men out of both clubs will be chosen and a good game will be put up. The teams have not yet been chosen.

ENTHUSIASM REVIVED.

Victoria's boys who a few years ago used to have the satisfaction of seeing the old Amities and other Victoria clubs defeat any amateur team north of San Francisco, but who lately had dropped out of the ring, are beginning to open ther eyes again. They never thought that another club would turn up that could play ball with any amateurs on the coast until last Saturday's game when the new Amities defeated the Seattle Maroons. One of those whose enthusiasm has been re-aroused is the genial George Carter. When the Amities used to defeat the Willamettes, Portlands, Tacomas, Seattles and Townsends George was one of their most enthusiastic admirers. But when they fell behind altogether he stepped out of the ring of baseballists. Since the two local clubs have been playing good ball, however, George has again stepped to the front and he is now one of the leading lights at the meetings of the players and enthusiasts, keeping up the spirits of all by his jolly disposition. With the two Georges—Carter and Keightley—to coach them the boys ought to do well.

THE GUN.

TO RECEIVE THE VISITORS.

The Union Gun Club will meet tomorrow evening at 6 Bastion Square to arrange for the reception of the Tacoma Rod and Gun Club, who will visit Victoria during the week of the firemen's tournament. The local and visiting clubs will then give a grand exhibition of wing shooting.

MISCELLANEOUS.

"Chic" in the Canadian Sportsman, often gets rid of a good thing. Here are two: One of the political rascals that has been unearthed at Ottawa, was present at the O.J.C. meeting at Woodbine, two years ago, and in the writer's presence expressed the opinion that so many races were "fixed" nowadays that an outsider had no chance unless he got the "tip." In view of recent developments I am inclined to think it deucedly lucky for the turf that such as this fellow hasn't much to say in its management. There are rascals in every profession and business and in every walk of life, but I will venture the assertion that you would have to hunt a good many quarter stretches before you would find a meaner lot of sharks than those that have lately been hooked at the Capital.

There is something wrong somewhere, the usual crop of fish stories for the present season haven't so far materialized. Whether it be that the anglers have turned over a new leaf, and now lie not or whether the usual Munchausens have been housed up and have not had a chance I can't guess, but sure it is that I have not this summer been favored with the big strings that every other year have been unwound for my benefit. The only yarn that has come my way was fathered by a staunch Methodist of this city, a man who would take a fit if he saw a fellow pucker his mouth for a whistle on the Sabbath day, in fact he is a most "Holy Willie" of the most cast iron pattern and never was known to take a drink of fire water—only on the sly. Well this devout citizen was up at Bobcaygeon and truly caught the day he was out four bass the weight of which would total about 8 pounds. He however traded off his rod to a local fisherman for about 25 bass, and after his return he, at an experience meeting in the basement of the church told him the brethren and sisters how great his luck had been, he declared that he caught three score bass that weighed nearly 200 pounds, and that it took him only one day to make the record. Chalk in hand, he drew on a blackboard what he thought was a fair outline of the biggest fish he landed, and my informant declared that it was a half true picture he ought to weigh about ten pounds. Now, a cheerful liar is always preferable to your morose and sullen stretcher, but the fellow who can stand up in the basement of the Lord's House of Prayer, and reel it off like this pillar of the church I am speaking about, is a cock, a dandy, that deserves to rank with the immortal Tom Pepper, who for 50 years has enjoyed the reputation of being the monumental liar of the age.

Another Stride Forward.

The wonderful improvement in Canadian pianos arrived at by the Ennis Manufacturers is beyond all comparison. Call and see them at T. W. Fletcher's, 97 Fort Street.

One of Vancouver's minister's preached to a packed congregation on Sunday night, on the subject "The Den of Thieves at Ottawa." The congregation enjoyed hugely the details of the scandal then served up, and each man thought his neighbor was particularly hard hit in some of the references.

IN THE SLAVE TRADE.

South Sea Islanders Carried into Practical Slavery in Mexico.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—The brig Tahiti, which put into Drake's bay on Saturday in distress, is reported to have left to-day for San Benito, Mexico, with her human cargo of 209 South Sea Islanders.

The customs officials were in doubt as to the course they should pursue in the matter of the Revised Statutes of the United States which provide for the seizure and forfeiture of any vessel found within the jurisdictional limits of the United States having on board any person of color with intent to land the same within the United States or elsewhere as a slave or to be held for service or labor.

Collector Phelps states, however, that the vessel had been driven upon the coast by stress of weather, and that her officers had not intended to enter American waters.

He had no revenue cutter within reach to send up to examine the brig's cargo, nor had he authority to engage another craft for that service.

Captain Ferguson, who is part owner of the craft, states that he is acting as the authorised agent of the Mexican government, to assist immigration to that country, and that the terms of contract, which were explained to all the natives before signing, provide that they shall work three years at $8 a month, and shall be given a free passage to and from the islands, shall be given a house and tract of land, and be furnished food and clothing.

The bark Helen Almy took 240 islanders from Tahiti to Sinben last year on the terms. Before the vessel can leave the island with such a cargo, said Capt. Ferguson, some consular representative must examine each native and certify to the passenger list.

In the case of the Tahiti this was done by A. Rick, consular agent of the United States at Gilbert Islands.

Judge Sawyer's Death.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Judge Lorenzo Sawyer died very suddenly at 7:45 o'clock last night. He had been much better during the day and was deemed convalescent. His son Houghton was reading to him. His son Prescott and his grandson, Howard Adams, were also present. Suddenly he was seized with a severe fit of coughing. Prescott ran for Dr. Yeamans, who lives only a few doors off, but before he could return Judge Sawyer was dead. The disease was capillary bronchitis, from which he had been confined to bed 10 days. The immediate cause of death was the formation of a clot of blood, which the coughing forced to a vital spot in the heart, causing almost instant death. The death of Sawyer leaves the northern district of California without any federal judge, the late Judge Hoffman's place not having been filled.

Emin Pasha's Troubles.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A serious disaster is reported to the German expedition in East Africa, where the Arab slave traders have been carrying on a savage fight with the Germans. The latter are commanded by Emin Pasha, supported by Lieutenants Stuhlman and Langheld. At the latest previous accounts Emin was on his way to Lake Tanganyika, en route for Ujiji, and the slave traders were attacking him and his forces at every opportunity. The vali of Karawe tried twice to send goods after the Germans, but the bearers had to return, and some of them were murdered. The news comes in a dispatch from Zanzibar stating that in a skirmish at Lake Tanganyika the natives, probably slave traders, had killed Lieut. Stuhlman. Further particulars as to the safety of the German forces is anxiously awaited.

To be Sent Back to China.

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 7.—The eight Chinamen who were arrest on August 5 near Fort Benton, while being smuggled into the United States, had a hearing before Judge Knowles of the circuit court, who heard the case at chambers. He ordered the men to be turned over to the collector of the port at San Francisco for shipment to China. None of them were able to produce certificates that they were in the country before the passing of the exclusion act in 1888. All of them are young looking fellows except one, who speaks English and says he was on his way to Brooklyn, N. Y., where he claims to have an interest in a laundry.

A Switzerland Swindler.

BERLIN, Sept. 7.—The collapse of a swindling banking concern, run by one Schulz, at Luben, has caused widespread ruin to the people, who had been induced to invest their funds with the institution. Laborers and other poor persons were led by Schulz' promises to deposit their scanty savings with him and the result is that hundreds of families are now mourning the loss of all their possessions.

Panic in a Paris Theater.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—During a performance of "Lakme," at the Opera Comique to-night, the electric lights in the theater were suddenly extinguished. The audience became panic stricken in the darkness, but no one was hurt, and order was soon restored. Investigation being made, it was found that the stage carpenter had become entangled in the dynamo and been torn into shreds.

Destitute Hebrews.

TORONTO, Sept. 7.—Forty families of destitute Hebrews arrived here last night from Montreal, and after being cared for during the intervening time by the Jews of this city, were to-day forwarded to Buffalo and other points in the United States. Each family was supplied with food for the journey and a small sum of money.

African Trading Grounds.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A dispatch from Mobassa, in British East Africa, announces that the British East Africa Company's steamship Kenia has navigated the River Tana a distance of 300 miles from the coast, and thus opened to trade a fertile and populous district which heretofore has been supposed to be practically closed to commerce.

Wisdom's Violet Cream

New Oregon Railway.

PORTLAND, Sept. 7.—Articles of incorporation of the Oregonian, Washington & Idaho Railway and Navigation Company were filed here to-day. The capital stock is $2,000,000. The incorporators are the leading men of three states and the object of corporation is to open the Columbia river for navigation up to the mouth of the Snake river by building portages around the Cascades and The Dalles and locks to connect. The incorporation is the outcome of the meeting of delegates from the three states held here in April. The delay in incorporating was caused by the difficulty in securing incorporators in each of the states and getting the necessary certificates. Solicitors will be sent out through all three states at once to secure subscriptions to the stock of the company in $25 shares, and as the work is for the benefit of all sections and this is a prosperous year, it is expected that the farmers will subscribe liberally.

Blew Himself Up With a Bomb.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—F. L. Carroll registered at the Prescott House this morning as William De Young, of Fresno. Shortly afterward an explosion which shook the neighborhood attracted attention to his room, and it was found he had committed suicide by exploding a dynamite bomb. The remains of the man were scattered all over the room, and one of his arms was found in the street. The windows and plastering were broken and the furniture damaged. Deceased had been working on the fruit farms near Fresno. He told a number of persons here that he intended taking his life, as he wanted to create a sensation for the newspapers, but in a note to the coroner, which he left, giving his age as 41 and birthplace as Holland, he says he committed suicide because life was not worth living.

Among His Constituents.

NEWPORT, Oregon, Sept. 8.—Representative Hon. Bigger Herman has examined the government jetty at Aquina, and yesterday visited the Siuets Indian reservation, where a council was held with the Indians, presided over by special agent Col. Parker, of the Interior Department, who is sent here to examine into the condition of agency matters. To-day Herman went down the coast to visit the Alsea river and bay, the people there being anxious for a visit from him.

The Union Pacific.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Sidney Dillon, President of the Union Pacific Railroad Co., said no meeting would be held to-day for the purpose of ratifying or consumating the agreement by which a syndicate is to advance the necessary money to keep the company's loans.

THE MILWAUKEE ROAD.

Incomparable Comforts and Conveniences for Travellers.

CHICAGO, Jan. 1, 1891.

Sometimes we make good resolves at the beginning of the year—and break them. I think it better to do than mere[ly] resolve. Let me begin the year right by telling the thousands of daily [trav]elers of the Railway and Hotel News [Record], no matter what railway managers [may] induce tooters to claim, the fact is [that] the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul [Railw]ay fluted train that leaves St. Paul for [Chica]go every evening at eight is the [best] train of all the "common carriers" in [the] neck of woods. And I say this [with]out desiring in any sense to detract [from] the merits of other roads. They [each] have their popular features. Each [has] some special merit. But the "Mil[wau]kee" possesses all these and has [added] some of her own. This favorite [com]pany recently decided to own its [own] sleeping cars, and some of the new [ones] that have been put into service in [the] last month are the most luxurious, [the] most beautiful and best constructed [cars] ers ever built by any company. [There] is no suggestion of "gingerbread" [anyw]here, but solid comfort, rest, a sort [of] eeling as if at last we had found the [very] desideratum in sleeping car in[terio]rs.

Business required me to visit Chicago [on] Saturday evening and I selected [the] "Milwaukee" vestibuled because I [had] got a straight tip from a very [prom]inent New York theatrical man[ager] who had recently tried it. He de[clare]d it to be the greatest train in [Amer]ica. Now this is saying a good [deal] for there are some fairly good [trains] na banging over the American Con[tinen]t. Well, I took his tip. I fortun[ately] got "lower 13" in one of the new [cars] pers of the company. Just over my [head] near the window a shaded electric [light] t sent forth its penetrating gleams. [The] temperature of the train is kept [comfo]rtably at about seventy degrees, as [it is] heated by steam from a "heat and [power] er car" next the engine. This car [also] furnishes the electric light for the [train].

With a sigh of relief after a hard day's [work] I laid back on the upholstered [cushi]ons and scanned a St. Paul even[ing] paper. The sleeper was rapidly [filling] up. There were two or three [young] ladies traveling alone, appar[ently] as much at home as if they were [under] their own roof. It is a maxim [with] the "Milwaukee" management, and all train employes are strictly enjoined on this point, that weak and unprotected travelers over the lines of the company are, for the time being, the especial charge of each and every employe.

* * * * * * *

At 11 p.m. I "wrapped the drapery of my couch about me and lay down to pleasant dreams," and if ever one slept the sleep of the innocent and the just, it was the subscriber that night. Snow white sheets and pillow cases, downy pillows, warm blankets, thick and soft hair mattresses, all combined to woo the drowsy god Somnus in my behalf.

At Milwaukee the dining car was attached. I had thought of breakfasting at the Auditorium in Chicago, but a friend returned from his breakfast and assured me I could not afford to let that breakfast get away. And now I know I couldn't. Like the vestibuled train itself, it was "out of sight" in all particulars.

I had never been able to understand why the "Milwaukee," with so many active competitors as it has in St. Paul and Minneapolis, had been able to hold the "balance of power" as it does, with the travelling public. I know now, and I don't mind telling you: In every new departure marking a distinct advance, in utilizing every new device to add to the comfort and safety of its patrons, in the affability of its employees, and in general excellence, the "Milwaukee" is easily first. It's the model railway line between Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis, and as compared with some of its would-be rivals is away "Out of Sight." H.

Arrested as Train Robbers.

MERCED, Cal., Sept. 7.—Yesterday afternoon Detective Lawson hunted up a camping party from whom the Ceres train robbers obtained a drink of water on the evening of the robbery. He found them near Athlone, 10 miles south of here. They are a young couple named Graham, and are on their way to Los Angeles. Friday night they were camped near Keys, three miles south of Ceres. About 6.30 o'clock, when fairly dark, two men came up and asked for a drink. One tall man came into the light, but the other, who was shorter, kept in the background. The tall man carried a small shotgun wrapped up in his coat. Mrs. Graham unhesitatingly recognized the portrait of Bill Dalton as that of the short man. The Grahams will be confronted with Deans as soon as possible, and if they identify him as the tall man the evidence will be complete.

STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 7.—Riley Deah, who was arrested with Bill Dalton Sunday, and charged with complicity in the train robbery, lived in this county for a long time, farming as a "jumper" on the so-called Mokelumne grant. He left here five or six years ago, and has since been living in Tulare county. It now transpires that the officers agreed that Bill Dalton and Dean should be arrested as the train robbers and detectives of the railroad force telegraphed to Sheriff Kay to make the arrests, Dalton being known to be near Traver. Sheriff Cunningham came here to keep a lookout for Dean if he should show up in this section, where he has relatives. The officers believe they have the right men.

The U. S. and Chili.

WASAINGTON, Sept. 8.—The Chilian situation is gradually assuming a stable character, and less interest is manifested in official circles since it is taken for granted that the new government, with Gen. Montt at its head, was fully installed in the confidence of the people, and all that is lacking to an official recognition by various powers is the perfection of the details of the government. Minister Egan has full instructions on that point, and when he indicates to the United States Government that the time is ripe for such action, the State Department will formally recognize the representative of the Montt Government at Washington and the cordial relations between the United States and Chili will be resumed.

By order of the President, Attorney-General Miller has sent instructions to the United States Marshal at San Diego, Cal., to discontinue the proceedings in the case of the United States against the steamer Itata. This is one result of the success of the Chilian revolution.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has a steadily increasing popularity, which can only be won by an article of real merit. Give it a trial.

DR. HELMCKEN AND MONOPOLY.

Dr. Helmcken is happier as a speaker on local commercial matters than as an advocate of Toryism. In the former role he is incisive and conclusive, whilst in the latter—well, he is rhetorical, or, as the Americans say, "spread eagle." No gush about the doctor when he deals with local affairs; he is strictly business. The doctor's remarks before the Board of Trade yesterday were timely. It is too true that we are neglecting local commercial development. It is a fact that our steamboat connection with points in the northern half of the Island and with the Fraser is not what it should be. It costs too much to travel, freights are not cheap, and, what is quite as important at anything else, a trip to Victoria from Comox and from points on the Mainland, is not a matter of hours but days. It is a fact that one can make the round trip to Portland from Victoria about as quickly as can persons living at certain points on the Mainland and Comox make the round trip to Victoria. This is all wrong.

Business men these days are deeply concerned as to cheap freights and rapid transit. Detention at points on account of slow going steamers is something they abhor. It not only puts them to extra expense, but it not infrequently happens that their business suffers thereby. Quick and cheap dispatch is what wanted nowadays, and the distributing point that can but fails to furnish these conditions is sure to fall behind commercially. Vancouver to-day is actually closer to Nanaimo than is Victoria, and is now preparing to compete with Victoria for the Mainland trade, which it will get in its entirety unless Victoria improves her steamboat service with the Fraser river. There should be also, as Dr. Helmcken pointed out, a daily steamer service between Victoria and Comox. It will be urged that "the traffic won't bear it; that the steamer service to these points and the Mainland is now fully commensurate with the trade." The answer to this objection is that it is not so much present as prospective profits that must be borne in mind; the establishing and extending of a permanent trade; and of proving the Hon. John Robson a false prophet. Surely it is not the intention of Victoria merchants to sit supinely by and watch the verification of the Premier's prophecy to the Winnipeg reporter.

Granting that Victoria's steamer service is the best that can be had until more steamers have been built, what is to prevent reducing freights and fares? We agree with Dr. Helmcken that $20, the passenger rate to Comox and return, is an excessive figure. If there is trade to stimulate with Comox and other points on this Island, freights and fares should be reduced to the lowest possible point. "Monopoly," as Dr. Helmcken described it, should not be permitted to stand between Victoria and trade development with points which are her natural tributaries.

And this brings us to ask who is responsible for the alleged Dunsmuir monopoly, and whether the TIMES should goad these people? Were not the Dunsmuirs made monopolists in spite of the TIMES? The people wanted a king. They got him despite the TIMES' opposition, and now, as they are being devoured, is it anything more than human that the TIMES should feel like taking in the spectacle as a passive spectator? The monopoly that Dr. Helmcken so pointedly denounces would have been impossible had the advice of the TIMES been heeded, nor do we hold the Doctor altogether blameless in the matter: A monopoly has grown out of it, a great big domineering monopoly that claims everything in sight, and everything that is not. What is in the bowels of the earth as well as what is on the surface is the Dunsmuirs'. They will neither use their possessions nor let anybody else, nor have they gratitude enough, if we may believe the doctor, to run a daily steamer to Comox. Could the doctor have expected anything else? Is not this true of all monopolies? But the people would have a king and the politicians gave them one! And what about the politicians? It may seem irrelevant to allude to them in this connection, but they are of the same kidney as the monopolistic Dunsmuirs, and we cannot help thinking that the doctor made a mistake commercially in lending them his support. He made the cause of Messrs. Prior and Earle respectable by lending it his presence, and it gave birth to a drill shed. Doctor, doctor, you must feel good as god-father to such an offspring! We would like to get your private opinion of it with the privilege of publishing it. But enough of reproaches. Now that the doctor is in open rebellion against His Majesty Dunsmuir II we are bound to applaud, for we see ourselves vindicated. Go ahead doctor! Success to you. You have our sympathy, and you are going to get our active support. You spoke to the point yesterday, doctor. This city will go to the devil commercially unless your complaint is heeded.

THE OTTAWA MESS.

We still hear tales of the Conservative leaders' anxiety to cleanse their party from its stains, and Premier Abbott shoves forward his anti-boodling bill in the Senate as a good measure of disinfection. He has even, as reported in the Colonist, "told Senator Scott that if he expected the Government was not going to energetically prosecute those convicted of frauds in connection with the recent investigations, the Opposition were greatly mistaken." Two occurrences almost co-temporaneous with the Premier's speech might well ensure for it a somewhat sceptical reception.

First, we are told that at a meeting of the sub-committee of the Privileges and Elections Committee, which has in hand the preparation of a report on the Langevin case, no agreement was reached, the Conservative members being in favor of exonerating Sir Hector, while the Opposition members objected to his being whitewashed. Surely if the Premier is in earnest about the prevention of frauds on the country, he will reason with his colleagues who are endeavoring to shield from condemnation the chief offender in this respect. It is not possible that any sane man can honestly regard Sir Hector as personally innocent of wrongdoing. Even if it were shown that not a dollar of the contractors' contributions went into his own pocket, there remains the fact that he allowed those men to bleed the country for the sake of their donations to the party election funds. If Premier Abbott's colleagues and the party majority are to be allowed to carry through the doctrine that corruption is defensible when it benefits the party, though damnable when it benefits the individual, then will the Premier pose in vain as an ardent reformer and political purist.

The second commentary on the Premier's remarks was furnished by the proceedings in the Public Accounts Committee. There, in spite of the opposition of the Conservative majority, it was shown that in Mr. Chapleau's department the offences of the Public Works Department were exactly paralleled. How comes it that if the Premier is so anxious to frown down iniquity Mr. Foster is so eager to obstruct an inquiry when it threatens to uncover a minister's wrongdoing? However, the Conservative majority on the committee were equal to the occasion and the truth coming out, and it was clearly proved that a contribution to Chapleau's election fund procured the settlement of a difficulty between his department and the Dominion Type Foundry Co. Premier Abbott is plainly obliged to ask Mr. Chapleau how it was that Senecal's order for type, once repudiated, was made legitimate by the handing of a cheque for $1500 to the Tory workers in Montreal. This type scandal and the paper scandal exposed a few days ago furnish the clearest evidence that Chapleau should accompany Langevin to the outer shades without any delay. His retention in the ministry "knocks the bottom out" of the Premier's fine speeches.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Last Friday was "settling day" with the banks, and according to the reports of Montreal bank managers, outstanding paper was very poorly met. It is to be feared that the coming winter will severely test the strength of many commercial and financial institutions in Quebec province, while in Ontario all the support furnished by fair crops and good prices will be needed to keep the financial situation from becoming bad.

A Toronto dispatch quotes the Mail as mentioning a floating rumor to the effect that the adherents of the two parties in Kingston will unite in tendering Hon. E. Blake the nomination for that constituency to the vacant seat in the House. It does not seem likely that the rumor has any foundation, nor is it any more likely that Mr. Blake would accept such a nomination, in view of his farewell letter to the electors of West Durham. By the way, it is in order to ask why no writ has been yet issued for Kingston, which has remained unrepresented for nearly the whole session. Is the Government afraid?

VICTORIA MUST MOVE AT ONCE.

TO THE EDITOR:—It is pleasing to note that the efforts of the TIMES have at last succeeded in arousing the merchants of Victoria to the fact that trade is being lost to the city through lack of ordinary steamboat communication. It looks hopeful for the future to see a gentleman like Dr. Helmcken show the interest he does in the matter—and none too soon. The trade of the Fraser river, which is developing faster and which will pay better than almost any other country trade of the province, is sadly neglected. And not only the merchants of Victoria but the farmers along the river are losers by it. They feel, as they have always felt, that this is their best market and they are only too anxious to assist in maintaining daily communication with this city—but they say they cannot start the service themselves. New Westminster, the solid, plucky and enterprising little city on the banks of the Fraser, is as desirous of a daily service to connect her with Victoria, as she is to have railway communication with the south. But these communities are not rich communities like ours, they have not the steamboats and they naturally look to us to take the initiative. Victoria then must awake to her own interests and place two more good passenger and freight boats on the routes between Victoria and Westminster, and between Victoria, Chemainus, Maple Bay, Salt Spring, Cowichan and Nanaimo. A third and smaller steamer should make connection with Comox at Nanaimo. The latter includes the routes on which the two new boats which are being built at Vancouver are to be placed. Let Victoria merchants then take warning. To neglect these routes for a few months more means to lose their trade for the present, and perhaps forever. Let us give up harping on impracticable railway schemes and talk business and common sense. There is trade to be had. Let us reach out a hand for it.

THE STORY OF A BELLE.

Autobiography of a Young Woman Who Shines in Society.

Sometimes I doubt if I were born, writes a society belle in the Ladies' Home Journal. I think I am the result of transmigration—first an orchid, next a bird of paradise, and last of all a blooded horse. I belong to an old family, and my solicitor tells me that I have a great deal of money; but who ever heard of a woman having enough? Mamma very sensibly trained me to be a coquette. From the time that I could stand I was fully aware of the value of my white skin, my deep, dark eyes, and that attached to the wonderful red hair they made a gorgeous framing for my finely-cut face.

I was willing to go to bed early, for I had been told of the good of those sleeping-hours that come before twelve o'clock, to be bathed and rubbed until I was weary enough to sleep again, because my nurse had said that this would make my form handsome and supple and my arms and neck the admiration of the world. School was an unknown quantity to me—governesses and that sort of thing came and I endured them, learned of them and was spoken of by them as the most beautiful girl they had ever seen—but one who was utterly heartless. They little understood that heart was the last thing that would be desirable in my profession, for I made it such.

At eighteen years of age I was brought out, but for three months before that my mother had taught me exactly who among the men were eligible, who were not, what women were to be cultivated, what ones to be civil to and what ones to ignore. I made my first appearance at the Patriarch's ball, and mamma very wisely had me dressed in the finest of white silk muslin made in empire style, with a broad, white sash about my waist, a white rose in my hair, and long, white gloves only partially covering my beautiful arms. As was proper, I accepted the invitations to dance from the widowed men, from whom it was a compliment to receive them, and as far as possible I ignored the younger ones. I sought mamma's wing at the end of each dance, and to her delight the impression left on everybody's mind was that of my being an extremely beautiful, ingenuous young girl who knew nothing whatever about society. How they erred!

The Zambesi Sails.

The Upton steamship line to-day deposited bonds amounting to $25,000 security in the claim to be brought by the owners of the schooner Fannie Dutard. The Zambesi will accordingly leave for the Orient this evening. The counter claim of the Upton line for salvage amounting to $11,000 will be filed to-morrow.

Apparatus Admitted Free.

Collector Milne has received the official permission from Ottawa to admit the reels and apparatus for the firemen's tournament free of duty. The firemen are indebted for this facility to the collector, who foresaw that to be able to dispense with a lot of trouble would be no small boon to the officials of the tournament.

One More Home.

Sealing schooner Umbrina put into port last night from the Behring sea. She was warned out on the 22nd July when she had a catch of only 305. Captain Campbell headed for the Russian coast and caught 200 more seals in the neighborhood of Copper island. Her total catch for the season was close upon a thousand skins.

Not Cleared Yet.

The schooner Henrietta has not yet been cleared for the North Pacific Ocean, but Collector Milne, though having no official order to refuse such a clearance, has advised the captain of the importance of the step he is taking and the consequences that may follow. He has no intention of seeing the law broken even indirectly.

To Interview Exhibitors.

Mr. C. Somerfield has been engaged by the Agricultural society to interview manufacturers and business people generally as to the space they will require at the coming exhibition. It is the intention to make this the largest and most representative show ever held by this society. Those requiring space should write the Assistant Secretary, Mr. W. H. Bainbridge, 44 Broad street, for particulars.

For the Orient.

The C.P.R. steamship Empress of Japan will arrive down from Vancouver about 6 o'clock this evening, bound for the Orient. She is heavily loaded with freight and has a large list of cabin and steerage passengers. There are 10 cabin, three second cabin, 10 European steerage and 65 Chinamen at this port waiting for the steamer to take passage to the Orient.

A Grand Country.

Mr. Geo. Riley, secretary-treasurer of the Shuswap and Okanagan railway, arrived in the city this morning and he says the new line will be laid to Vernon by Saturday which will probably mean a gala day for that rising city. The C.P.R., will take the line over and bring the grain out this season, but the line will not be in regular running order until New Year's. The crops in the valley have been grand, there being over 15,000 tons of grain in the valley ready for shipment. Fruit raising is becoming a regular thing in the valley and to show how well the country is adapted to that industry it is only necessary to say that a few days ago a whole car load of melons was shipped from Enderby.

The Late A. A. McArthur.

Mayor Grant has received a letter from Mrs. A. A. McArthur, who resides near Cornwall, Ont., conveying intelligence of the death of her husband, who, it will be remembered, was for several years publisher of the Sunday Star in this city. He died at New Haven, Conn., of la grippe and inflammation of the brain, a year ago last March. Mr. McArthur left Victoria about four years ago, and married, shortly afterwards, a lady in the county of Glengarry, Ont. He was a man of considerable ability, and he could have made his mark as a writer had he but applied himself steadily to the profession of journalism which he followed fitfully in several cities on the coast, as well as in Victoria, for a good many years.

A Big Cargo of Salmon.

The steamer Islander, Captain Irving, arrived in the harbor this morning from Northern ports, having made the round trip to Fort Simpson and return in seven days. The weather was not all that could be desired, but it was not that that delayed the steamer, it was the large cargo that she had to load. It consisted of 10,715 cases of salmon, divided as follows: 3200 cases Standard P. Co., 1515 cases Inverness C. Co., 5000 Warnock P. Co., 1000 Rivers Inlet C. Co. She brought down 48 white and 156 Chinese passengers from the different canneries. The list of white passengers is given in another column. All the salmon with the exception of 1500 cases will be discharged into the barks Callao and Serica now loading at the outer wharf for the United Kingdom.

The salmon will be divided as following: 1000 cases Rivers Inlet, Serica; 1330 cases Standard Pkg. Co., Serica; 5000 cases Warnock, Callao; 1872 cases Standard Pkg. Co., Callao; 1515 cases Inverness, T.B. Co., dock.

Cole was caught in the act of trying to enter one of the rooms by force. The case will be heard in the police court to-morrow morning. A well-known ex-politician occupies an adjoining cell to Cole, he having been arrested for being drunk and disorderly.

Police Court Notes.

Wm. Gillman and a West Indian negro were both fined $5 and costs for being drunk. A case for driving over Rock Bay Bridge at a pace faster than a walk was dismissed. A Chinaman charged Thos. McCulloch with having stolen a halibut from him valued at $1.45. The case was remanded until to-morrow in order to allow defendant time to procure evidence. He was allowed bail in the sum of $50. John Silva, an italian of venerable appearance, who keeps a store at the corner of Johnson and Store streets, has a grievance. He complains that street passengers whenever they are passing always laugh at him, and it hurts his feelings. This morning he appeared in court and charged Wm. Radford with having struck him. This Radford denied, and as there was no evidence on either side the case was dismissed. Silva told the court "that if the law noa punish that bada man me punishe himsela." The case created considerable amusement.

Will Eclipse all Others.

The excursion from Seattle on Saturday under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias promises to eclipse any yet held. Fifteen hundred tickets had been sold on Monday last, which means that Victoria will see over 3000 strangers in their city next Saturday. Three or four steamers have been chartered to bring the party over and if necessary another will be chartered. Four hundred Knights in uniform will be among the excursionists, who will parade the streets headed by the First Regimental band of Seattle. The party will land at the outer wharf, where they will be met by the Uniform Rank K. of P., of this city with their band. Arrangements will be made with the street car company to run cars from the outer wharf to Esquimalt so that the excursionists will be enabled to visit the chief attraction, the Warspite, without the usual inconvenience with which visitors meet, especially those who were here last Saturday. A special convention of Far West Lodge has been called for this evening, when arrangements will be made to entertain the visiting Sir Knights. The meeting will take place in the Pioneer Hall on Broad street at 8 o'clock when every member is requested to be present.

Down From Juneau.

Rev. Father Althorfe, whose mission is at Juneau, Alaska, is down on a brief vacation, and is a guest of His Lordship Bishop Lemmens. The reverend father's district is a very extensive one, comprising Juneau, Sitka, Wrangel and the coast points, but his headquarters are at Juneau, where there is a flourishing school and a hospital, the latter in charge of the sisters, whose work is highly appreciated by the people of Juneau and the district. Mission work there is not exciting. A new school house, costing about $3000, was built this summer, a sign of progress in education. Father Althorfe says mining operations are going along steadily. The Treadwell mine made an excellent shipment last month, and the prospects are very good. The Silver Bow Basin is still being worked. Mr. Knowles, who owns a large interest in it, has purchased the placer claim of Connolly & Cadman. The latter, however, will finish the season, the transfer to be made next spring. The price is understood to be $25,000. There are also very good prospects above Sumdum, a few miles from Juneau, in a quartz claim owned by a man from Wrangel, and there is another good one owned by McMahon & Co. Both these claims have been looked into by capitalists this year, and in all probability development will commence next spring. The new mail route from Sitka to the Aleutian Islands has proved a convenience. At Sitka the Government has commenced building a new barracks for the marines, and a new dock at Japonski Island. Father Althorfe returns on the Mexico, the steamer on which he came down.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

LICENSING BOARD.

Application for Transfer of Licenses Granted —Others Adjourned.

The Board of Licensing Commissioners, consisting of His Worship the Mayor, Mr. A. L. Belyea, Police Magistrate, and Robt. Ward, J.P., sat in the police court room this morning, and disposed of the following

APPLICATIONS:

From Jos. Menier, Jos. Brown, and H. M. Fox, for a transfer of the license of the Caledonia saloon from J. Carpenter.—Adjourned for two weeks, as one of the applications had been mislaid.

From Mr. Daley, for a transfer of the license of the Grand Pacific hotel to J. Sauer.—Granted.

Mr. Geo. Thompson, for a transfer of his license to McKenzie Munro.—Granted.

F. W. Garland, for a license for the Balmoral restaurant.—Granted.

Jno. McCartney, transfer of Leland house license to H. Cole.—Granted.

W. H. Shewan, for a transfer of the Western hotel license to John Doherty.—Granted.

Mrs. Bertha Hemans, for a transfer of the Standard saloon license to John Cort.—Adjourned for two weeks, so as to have the case come before a full bench.

John Walsh, for a transfer of the White Horse saloon license.—Adjourned for two weeks.

Mr. Ward called attention to the disorderly scenes enacted around the North Pacific saloon, at the corner of Wharf and Yates streets. He had complained of this before, and if it was not stopped he would suggest that the license be cancelled.

A Rare Event.

So many features which are all of benefit to the purchaser are offered by the proprietors of the Mount Tolmie Home Building Association that the applications both for lots and houses are pouring in daily. The company have reserved a day, which will be announced in due course, so that all may have a fair opportunity of selecting the lot of their choice. There is no question but that the inducements held out are more liberal than any offered to the public of this city. The essential points which have made this enterprise so popular and which have induced so many to enquire into the workings of the undertaking and caused the present panegyric, are to be attributed to the Association's liberality. There being no interest on deferred payments, rapid development in the construction of the 200 houses, a home secured at less than would be paid out in rentals for a similar property, a deed given to heirs and assigns in the event of death, deferred payments in such an instance being cancelled. The rapid increase of the value of the property through the motive of building, the impossibility of the property once sold reverting to the vendor also no forfeiture of payments already made, if unable to continue them, the co-operative system established giving every man an interest in the development of the property. The construction of the electric car system to the property guaranteed on the printed contracts issued, to be running inside of one year.

To those not wishing to erect a house the lots are a good investment, and the terms most easy, $25 cash and $5 per month for 55 months.

No father should allow this opportunity to pass, an event which occurs but seldom, a chance to give your boy a start in life, by paying one dollar and twenty-five cents a week or $5 per month, an amount you won't miss, his lot will increase in value, in 55 months, the boy will own a valuable property. A start in business for the boy, a handsome marriage portion for the girl. A few cents saved each day will pay the bill. The Mount Tolmie Home Building Association's office is 42 Fort street, where full explanations are given.

In Victoria's Interests.

Lee Fairchild, the well known Western poet and wit, editor and publisher of the Pacific Magazine, Seattle, was in the city yesterday, accompanied by G. A. Maloney, who will remain here for several days in the interest of this Magazine. The August number contains a well written article on "Our Victorian Cousins," by Chas. L. Springer, a very pleasant writer. This paper will be highly relished, especially by old settlers. Mr. Fairchild has purchased the Northwestern Review, which contained such an excellently illustrated and capably written description of the city in its current number. These two popular magazines will be issued in future under the name of the Pacific Magazine and Lee Fairchild will continue editor, being associated with Ella Higginson, whose poetry and writings have much more than local interest. The Pacific Magazine is a high class illustrated journal, and besides articles of general and popular interest will contain specially written and illustrated discriptions of prominent British Columbia points.

Will be Re-arrested.

Nothing further had been done to-day in the case of the girl Hattie May who it was alleged was abducted by E. Fried. The case against Fried was dismissed by the police magistrate yesterday and the father of the girl has not, as yet, been able to obtain her. Although several parties say that they have seen her on the street. The mother and brother of the girl came over from Seattle this morning and with their father have been in consultation with Supt. Hussey, of the Provincial police, all day without, however, coming to any decision as to what is to be done.

It is understood that a new warrant will be sworn out against Fried and that he will be re-arrested this evening.

He Had the D.T's.

John P. Cameron, a plumber by trade, tried to commit suicide yesterday by jumping from the steamer Yosemite into the waters of Plumper's Pass. He was rescued with much difficulty, and was handed over to the police on the steamer's arrival in this city. He was examined by Dr. Milne to-day, and pronounced to be suffering from the delirium tremens.

Broke Her Arm.

James Walsh will have to answer in the police court to-morrow morning to a charge of having broken the arm of Mrs. Catherine Campbell. It seems Walsh rented a house and certain furniture of Mrs. Campbell on View street. She, for some reason between them selves, sought to regain possession of the furniture. Walsh resisted, there was a struggle, with the result that Mrs. Campbell's arm was broken. She sought the police magistrate to-day, and laid an information against Walsh. A warrant was at once issued for his arrest.

Death's Doings.

Mrs. Christine Munro died this morning at her residence. Deceased, who had been ailing for some time, was 72 years of age, and an old timer here. She leaves a family, all of them, however, grown up and some married.

The infant child of Capt. Bennett died last night at its father's residence, Oak Bay avenue. The child was but nine months old, the cause of death being convulsions.

Sergeant Levin has received the news of the death of his mother, which sad event occurred at Edgbaston, Birmingham, England, on the 20th of August. The deceased lady was a sister of the Joseph Bros., large and well known real estate owners of this city. The sergeant has the sympathy of all in his bereavement.

Must Report at San Francisco.

The U. S. Treasury Department has approved the action of Collector Phelps of San Francisco, in ordering steam colliers from British Columbia to enter at that port before proceeding to other points in the collector's district. Hereafter such vessels must obtain permission from the custom house at San Francisco before to Port Costa. The object of the collector's order was to check smuggling operations alleged to have been carried on by certain officials of such colliers.

FOUGHT TO A FINISH.

An Ugly State of Affairs in an Idaho Penitentiary.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 9.—The report of a prize fight to a finish at the State penitentiary came to light in this city yesterday. The event occurred five weeks ago last Sunday. Boxing had been permitted by the warden for some months, and culminated in a finish fight between convicts Dunlap and McCreery, in which the former was whipped. Preliminaries were arranged by Warden Mack and his guards. Prisoners were allowed to bet money and articles which they manufactured on the result. On the day of the fight they were present en masse. Guard Alexander Robertson and Prison Commissioner Roberts were bottle holders for one of the combatants. All the officials of the prison were present except the deputy warden, who was away on leave of absence. The fight was a very savage one, Dunlap being pounded until covered with blood and almost unable to stand when his second (a guard) threw up the sponge. News of the affair has caused a sensation, and there is a clamor for an investigation.

Towing Captured Sealers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The barkentine Katie Flickinger arrived this morning, 17 days from Chignik bay, with 19,000 cases of salmon. She brought down as a passenger Captain Reed, of a fire insurance company, who went to Chignik to survey the wreck of the schooner Sadie F. Caller. The schooner left here for Chignik last May, and struck on a bar as she was attempting to pass in. Captain Reed reports that she is a total wreck.

Captain Plummer, of the Al-Ki, has been heard from at Sitka. He arrived there August 10, and left there on the 20th. He had the seized sealers Ethel and La Ninfa in tow. The weather was very rough going down, and one of the schooners got away from him. The captain took the other to Sitka, and steamed after the derelict. He soon overhauled her and brought her back. Several more vessels were awaiting his return to Unalaska, to be towed to Sitka and be tried for illegal sealing.

Smuggling at South Bend.

SOUTH BEND, Sept. 7.—Recent events show very clearly that smuggling is being carried on in the waters of Willapa Harbor. It is a well established fact that numerous plungers have at times made trips up the coast for the purpose of seal hunting, as is stated by the participants. However, upon their return no seal skins were ever seen, but money was spent very freely by the parties. The barkentine North Bend, on board of which smuggled opium was found by San Francisco custom house officers, had sailed from Sunshine ten days ago. Facts go to show that six Chinamen were landed at Sea Haven, one mile below here, last Wednesday night. Here is work for a custom house officer.

Good Crops in the Caucasus.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—The prospects for a good harvest in Caucasus are splendid. The government has reduced by 50 per cent. the rates upon cereals transported on the Caucasian railroads, in order to facilitate the conveyance of grain from one part of the country to another. It is officially announced that there are large reserves of rye stored in the granaries of the Baltic province of Livonia and the governor of that province has offered to lend 1,000,000 pounds to the provinces which find themselves deficient in their supply of rye, owing to bad crops or other reasons, the loan to be restored next harvest. The peasants of Courland and other Baltic provinces have made a similar offer.

The Great Northern.

SEATTLE, Sept. 8.—President J. J. Hill, of the Great Northern, yesterday inspected this end of the Seattle and Montana line. He said in conversation: "I am a little disappointed at the progress made on the road. I expected when I came here to be able to go over it entire, but I found that impossible. I am in the hope, however, that work will go on rapidly from this time forth. I leave here for New Westminster, and may possibly stop over in Fairhaven. After getting through at New Westminster I shall return to Seattle. My stay here will depend on how speedily I am able to settle the business that brought me here."

The Searles Will.

SALEM, Mass., Sept. 8.—Notice of intention to contest the will of Mary F. Searles, of Methuen, Mass., was filed to-day by Hon. E. F. Burley, and ex-Secretary Endicott. The notice recites that the contest is on behalf of her adopted son, Timothy Hopkins. The ground for the contest will be undue influence. The hearing was fixed for September 22.

Labor Day in Canada.

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.—Labor day was celebrated in an imposing manner. Thousands of people turned out to witness the procession. Business was suspended.

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—Labor day was celebrated with great enthusiasm. The public buildings were closed. There was a grand procession in the morning in which fully 10,000 men took part.

Grand Trunk Shops Burned.

PORT HURON, Mich., Sept. 7.—The large carshops of the Chicago & Grand Trunk Railway were partially burned yesterday afternoon. Eleven cars were destroyed, besides a large quantity of lumber and the carpenter shops. Loss, $100,000. Two hundred men are thrown out of employment.

British Exports Decrease.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Board of Trade returns show that the threatened contraction of British commerce has already commenced. The decrease in exports is largely due to the falling off in the tin plate trade.

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child, and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

TRICKS OF THE IMAGINATION.

Strange Delusions Entertained by Highly Nervous People.

A writer in a scientific journal gives the following, respecting tricks of excited imaginations: "An eminent New York physician, who was fond of experimenting, told a friend that he had compounded some wonderful pills, a single one of which would cause certain described symptoms. His friend volunteered to take one. The symptoms followed exactly as foretold; but the pill was afterward noticed in the tangles of a very full beard, not having been swallowed at all. The doctor's faith in the potency of his pills was such as to make him think that their mere proximity to the mouth might prove to be efficacious. But we bystanders attributed the unquestioned symptoms to the influence of an excited imagination over the physical condition. A report has gone the rounds to the effect that a certain lady residing in Bridgeport, Conn., in mortal agony called her physician because she had, as she supposed, swallowed her false teeth. She could feel them far down in her throat, and was actually choking to death. Eminent doctors consulted and agreed to resort to tracheotomy, to which they were about to proceed when one of them happened to step on some object under the edge of the bed, which, on examination, proved to be the missing molars. As soon as they were exhibited to the patient her convulsions ceased and she recovered her normal condition. Sifting the facts from the sensational accompaniments, there remains the delusion as to the teeth, the calling for medical aid and the finding of the teeth before the doctor arrived on the scene. But, even thus modified, the case was quite remarkable. It suggests instances of somewhat the same nature." N. Y. Ledger.

INDIA'S MINERAL WEALTH.

Many Obstacles in the Way of Enterprising Prospectors.

India is still a land of undeveloped mineral wealth. The deposits of iron and copper ore in certain districts are enormous, but as many of these districts are in the possession of semi-independent princes the British government does not care to arouse the ill feeling of these princes by opening their lands to prospectors. Nevertheless, says the Chicago News, the government has managed to bring sufficient pressure to bear upon them to persuade them to sell to some commercial companies.

On the line of one of the railroads that have lately been built in India the engineers, in cutting along the side of a mountain, came upon a mine of almost pure copper. A company immediately wanted to get possession of the property either by purchase or otherwise. But the prince to whom the property belonged was too quick for the speculators. He called his heathen priests to his aid. The union of church and state proved very serviceable to the prince upon this occasion. The priests accidentally passed by the cutting where the rich copper vein was discovered and here had a revelation of one of the potent Hindu gods.

Of course, the spot at once became holy ground and the greedy Englishmen's bright dreams of millions vanished into thin air when, a few days later, they saw a temple put up on the spot and two priests offering incense before the image of the god that had revealed himself.

PROFESSIONAL POSING.

Two Little Italian Boys Who Support a Family in This Way.

One of the foremost women artists of New York is emphatic in insisting that a majority of studio models are modest, clever women, says a writer in the Illustrated American. She says the ordinary price paid is one dollar a morning, or thirty-three and one-half cents an hour, posing thirty and resting fifteen minutes. It is tremendously trying work, necessitating considerable training to make a subject available for an artist's purposes. Prettiness of form and feature are strong recommendations to favor, but women of heroic mold with characteristic and marked faces are prized above beauties, and are often able to command very high rates. As an instance of the possibility of the profession, she told of two little Italian boys, brothers, who support a family of nine members solely with money earned in this way. They are charmingly handsome chaps, with lustrous southern eyes. They sit for pictures of fruit venders, acolytes, boy princes, etc. So easily and surely do the young foreigners make a living that, with the abandon common to their race, both parents have resigned labor, and with five other children subsist upon the studio profits of their two eldest sons.

The Smallest Flowering Plant.

The smallest flowering plant, according to London Tid-Bits, is wolffia microscopica, a native of India. It belongs to the duck-weed family. It is almost microscopic in size, destitute of proper stem, leaves and roots, but having these organs merged in one, forming a frond. There is a prolongation of the lower surface, the purpose of which seems to be to enable the plant to float upright in the water. The fronds multiply by sending out other fronds from a slit or cavity and with such rapidity does this take place that a few days often suffice to produce from a few individuals enough similar ones to cover many square rods of pond surface with the minute green granules. Small as these plants are they bear flowers. Two are produced on a plant, each of them very simple, one of a single stamen and the other of a single pistil, both of which burst through the upper surface of the frond.

American Dentists in England.

American dentists are very popular in England. Their advertisements are always to be seen in the London Times and other English papers. It is also to be noticed that English dentists announce their readiness to "perform all operations with the latest American improvements." In Paris, likewise, American dentists are greatly favored with French patronage, and several of them have made fortunes by their skill.

Bought Her Own Grave-Clothes.

TACOMA, Sept. 7.—Mrs. Ella Masters, aged 36, wife of J. E. Masters, of Vashon island, came to this city a month ago and bought an entire outfit, which she expected to wear when laid in her coffin. She had a presentiment that she would die on Vashon island within a few weeks. She died this morning in convulsions after a few days' illness. She had resided here and on the island for eight years. She leaves two daughters and a son. She belonged to a Rebekah Degree Lodge, I. O. O. F.

Election in Honduras.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The Herald's special from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, via Galveston, says: "The presidential election, which was held on Sunday, was quietly conducted, no serious disturbance being reported. Returns received show that Ponciano Leibo, the nominee of the progressive party, was the more popular candidate, and his election is assured. Borrillo, the candidate of the opposition and the socialists, was left far in the rear by his opponent.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO

There settled in Baker county, Oregon, near what is now Baker City, a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move about without the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."

Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache, incontinence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidney or urinary organs of either sex.

TRUSTEES BEGIN TO WORK.

A Lot of Business Disposed of at Last Night's Meeting of the Board.

Every member of the board of school trustees with the exception of Trustee Richards was present at the meeting of the board held at the City Hall last evening. The minutes of the previous meeting having been adopted the secretary read

COMMUNICATIONS

From J. N. Muir, stating that teachers were compelled to send in false reports as they could not answer certain questions on the report.

Trustee McLaughlin said he believed there was a great deal of truth in the letter as the teachers could not answer the questions. He never pretended to do so when he was teaching.—The letter was received and filed.

ACCOUNTS.

R. Jamieson for stationary, $22.02; McLellan & McFeeley, $10.15; Sehl, Hastie & Erskine, Furniture Co.—Referred to finance committee to be paid if found correct.

Secretary Erskine stated that he had received no reply from the Minister of Lands and Works re insurance.

Trustee McLaughlin of the committee appointed to provide for the increased number of pupils attending the ward schools reported that it was decided to have an addition of one room back made to the different ward schools. The architect had prepared the plans and if accepted tenders could be called at once. The architect's estimate of the cost of the work is $900 each—The plans were accepted and the architect was authorized to call for tenders immediately.

After some discussion it was decided to award the contract for the addition to the Victoria West school to Ireland & Clayton, the lowest tenderers. Their contract was for $1,360.

On motion it was decided to notify the insurance agents of the changes.

Trustee Morrow stated that the inspector had told him that the rate on the Central and High Schools had been reduced from 3 to 2 per cent.

The same trustee spoke regarding the need of new desks for the schools, especially at Hillside ward school. Also desks for the additions to the ward schools. The tenders for desks from Jacob Sehl and E. Robson were therefore brought up.

Trustee Morrow moved and Trustee Jessop seconded, that 300 desks be ordered through Mr. Sehl, whose tender was from 15 to 25 cents lower than Mr. Robson's; that a committee be appointed to decide on the size and that they be shipped by the N. P. R.—Carried.

It was explained by the different trustees that the latter clause was inserted on account of the way Victoria had been treated by the C.P.R.

The board then proceeded to appoint two additional monitors for the Central School, Miss Eliza King, 2nd A certificate, and Miss Sanderson, 3rd B certificate, were appointed to start their duties on the 1st October.

The secretary reported that the janitors' checks were in the hands of the city treasurer.

The meeting then adjourned until next Tuesday evening.

MR. MACLEOD EXPLAINS.

TO THE EDITOR.—Allow me to correct your report of my remarks on Sunday evening with reference to the Tramway Company. I never accused the company of proposing twelve hours as a day's labor for their employees. What I did say was, "that if that company asked their employees to labor for ten or eleven hours for seven days of the week, God would require it at their hands." I hold that the old law, six days' labor and one day's rest, is still in force, and that no body of men have any right to compel others to work for seven days. If the public require a Sunday service, it ought to be provided at their cost, and not at the cost of the health and life of motormeers and conductors. I need not say that I am greatly pleased to see the statement in to-night's paper that the company are determined to return to their first arrangement, and I do not doubt but that they will be able to devise some means of securing for their employees one day's rest in seven instead of the half-day which has been allowed them in the past.

P. McF. MACLEOD.

BAND UNIFORMS.

TO THE EDITOR.—In answer to your item in last night's edition, "If not, why not?" I wish to point out to you a few "why not's." Vancouver and Nanaimo have bands who were enabled to procure uniforms, because the people of those cities help their bands in whatever way they can. If they have anything for them to do, they give their work to their own band, and do not allow their money to be spent by outsiders. Here it is different. We have to compete with the band of whatever ship is on the station, because the band of a flagship can always play for little or nothing, having no expenses, no family, no taxes. Then again, the people of Victoria do not care what kind of music they have, as long as it is cheap; in consequence of which fact, bands are organized here almost every week, and when they play an engagement they are usually so glad over it that they get drunk and stay in that condition till the engagement is over. For verification of the latter facts please see Odd Fellows excursion to Seattle, and Vancouver excursion on steamer Victorian. We have as good musicians here as anywhere, but it is difficult to keep them here, for there is nothing to do for them, and they go to other places, where the people patronize those that live among them, and spend their earnings in their own cities. Whenever Victoria will patronize Victoria musicians, then I can warrant it will not be long before they too have a uniform, so necessary to a band, but when a man makes but a little money during a season and that little is divided between outside bands, you cannot very well blame the local musicians if they refuse to pay for a uniform.

EMIL PFERDNER.

From a Scholar's Standpoint.

The following "composition" was given to her teacher by a young lady attending the second division of the High School:

A large number of car-going people have been in a very disturbed state of mind over the irregularity and badly arranged schedule of the tram cars. Since the strike they seem to be as much out of time as ever. As usual, this matter has been dragged into the pulpit. As soon as any little event appears in the paper, on the next Sunday we hear it in one of the city churches. In reading our flourishing four-sheeted Cologist, we are very much inclined to side with the company; and when reading the TIMES we heartily sympathize with the men. The general sympathy, though, for the most part, is with the men. For how can we expect a mortal being, endowed with mind faculties, to soar from six o'clock in the morning to six at night, under a broiling hot sun—in a tram full of hot, cross, tired passengers—where one old lady wants the window down, another wants it up, and every body makes for the shady side of the car, until that side gets so crowded that somebody (much to his or her disgust) has to go over to the other side and get baked with the sun? And again, the winter coming on, alas only too quickly, makes them think of twelve hours in the cold—it being so very difficult to keep warm when standing still and having no exercise—and all this, for the munificent sum of forty-five dollars a month! Who can help being sorry for them, or wonder why they fight for nine hours instead of twelve hours per day? The school children do not relish the change of hands either, for the new conductor refused to let them come up to school on their school transfers, but was forced to give in after a lot of talk. But I suppose it takes practice to make perfect in running a car, very much in the same manner as excelling in the "lightning calculation system."

Donald Notes.

DONALD, Sept. 5.—Charlie Bains and Harry Cooper have had the best day's sport so far of this season. They came in with 40 fine grouse and 60 pounds of fine mountain trout, the fish weighing from a half pound to one and one-half pounds.

Sept. 6.—The Church of England bishop arrived on No. 2 train and is going to remain two or three days.

Mr. Marpole, superintendent C.P.R., is in town.

Davidson, the tight rope walker, is here.

No. 1 train was four hours late.

Sept. 7.—The congregation of the English Church are entertaining the bishop by a lawn tennis social on the sand.

Davidson's performance on the tight-rope to-day did not draw a crowd. The hat was passed around first and the people of Donald wanted to see the exhibition first before they gave their two bits.

The new jail is very near completion and makes quite an improvement on the Government grounds. Just a sprinkle of rain to-day. No. 1 train 6 hours late.
